The First Announcement

International S.B. Stechkin's Workshop-Conference on Function Theory will take place from August 5 to August 14, 2024, in the "Lesnoe Pomest'e" holiday center located near the city of Kyshtym, Chelyabinsk region. Both face-to-face and remote participation are possible.

The organizers of the Conference are N.N. Krasovskii Institute of Mathematics and Mechanics of the Ural Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences (IMM UB RAS) and Ural Federal University named after the first President of Russia B.N. Yeltsin (UrFU).

We invite you to participate in the Workshop-Conference.

The scope of the Workshop-Conference covers basic areas of modern function theory and approximation theory and includes classical topics: extremal problems in function theory and approximation theory, extremal properties of algebraic and trigonometric polynomials and entire functions, Fourier analysis, the best approximation of operators, geometrical problems of approximation theory, splines, wavelets, and various applications of approximative methods.

Arrival day: August 5, 2024 (Monday)
